

figure 3. Schematic of the proposed up-flow displacement ventilation design for the Garrick Theatre at Lichfield. This section illustrates four of the eight outflow stacks which were designed on the roof of the theatre. It also illustrates the inflow through the thermally massive plenum and through a down-draught stack