

Sustainability Now Show Programme

1st July	Event/subject	Video audio
8-9am	Introduction to the show from Phil Clark - how it works and what the content will be on that day. Followed by interview with sustainability guru	Video
9-10am	Preview hour - what's on during the two days. Key issues under discussion, questions answered in the bloggers lounge. Plus Government EPC video available and initial interview with the chair for the day, Dave Hampton And an introduction to the green pledge award.	Lounge - instant messenger
10-11am	On the couch with the Carbon Coach - Dave Hampton is available to answer any carbon related question on your footprint. Also a video interview of him in the auditorium	Video
11-12pm	Free hour	Visit booths, lounge - instant messenger
12pm Webinar	Live WEBINAR - The Cost of the Code - What are the current cost implications for achieving the various levels of the Code for Sustainable Homes? Have costs changed significantly since the Code was launched? How does this relate to lifecycle costs? What are consumer attitudes to paying more for sustainable homes? Speakers: Adam Mactavish from Cyril Sweett, Alan Shingler from Sheppard Robson and Colin Mitchell, Osborne regional director	Live audio webinar
1-2pm	Free hour	Visit booths, lounge - instant messenger
2-3pm	Refurbishment hour - video from Sponge/Parity projects day at eco-refurbishment in Surrey, 3D video and presentation on the Ecoterrace project by architect Rob Annable (to come). Presentation from Dr David Strong on refurbishing the existing stock	Video
3-4pm	Sustainability TV and best of Think - best of streamed content from our new weekly TV show	Video
4-5pm	International hour - An hour devoted to what's going on around the world. This will include audio interview with US green blogger Preston Koerner and footage from Che Wall's plenary speech at Think	Video
5pm onwards	The future of world cities - Footage from Herbert Girardet's speech at Think	Video
6pm	Carbon Coach on the couch part 2
8pm - close	Show closes for the day

Sustainability Now Show Programme

2nd July	Event/subject	Video audio
8-9am	Intro to the event by Building Sustainability editor Phil Clark with run through of the timetable for the day.	Video
9-10am	Free hour	Visit booths, lounge, instant messenger
10-11am	Refurbishment special part two - TV package on the new BREEAM excellent-rated Morgan Lovell HQ in Soho footage and interviews from from Existing Homes Alliance event	Video
11am-12pm	Free hour	Visit booths, lounge, instant messenger
12-1pm	WEBINAR - Surviving EPCs - EPCs - Now and beyond This webinar will assess how EPCs are bedding into the market after being introduced in April, and now that they are required for buildings over 2,500m² in size. It will tackle three core questions: are they working technically and practically? How is the industry coping with them? What will the long term influence of EPCs be? A panel of industry experts will offer up to date experiences and expertise on the implementation and influence of certificates. Speakers: Martin Stephens, environment director Prupim; Brian Scannell, NES and Roger Watts, Trident	Audio
1-2pm	TV hour highlights of our TV coverage including our second TV show and a recent interview with Jones Lang Lasalle boss Colin Dyer	Video
2-3pm	Free hour	Visit booths, lounge, instant messenger
3-4pm	International hour - video and presentations from Bill Taylor from Hopkins and Malcolm Smith from Arup on international projects in America, China and the Middle East. Plus whizzy 3D fly through from Masdar city	Video
4-5pm	Green Gurus - the Final Countdown - from 10-1 plus interview with Dave Hampton on the green gurus	Video
5pm onwards	Competition winners - announcement of the best sustainability pledge at the ceremony
8pm	Show Close.	